Canadian Club,

Hamilton, Ont.

Dear Mr. Johnston:

I shall be very glad to address the Hamilton Canadian Club on Friday evening, the 15th of January, at six o'clock, after having spoken to the Women's Canadian Club in the afternoon. I think that I will speak to the ladies on "A Perversion of Patriotism", with the purpose of showing how the German spirit has degenerated. I will speak to the men's club on "The Policies of Bismarck as preparing for the present war". It makes very little difference to me which subject I should take, but I think that last night over the telephone I told Mr. McCullough I would speak to the ladies on "A Perverted Patriotism".

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
